New Panel Saw Nears Completion

After a long wait, our panel saw has arrived from England. The Shed brains trust has been assembling what is a complicated piece of machinery.

The panel saw will be a welcome addition to The Shed, especially for projects such as the Bee boxes, where large sheets of plywood need to be accurately cut

Snakes Alive!

A diamond python made a welcome visit to The Shed and basked in the autumnal sun for four days under the security fence.

She/he then slithered off to parts unknown.

Celebrated Artist Becomes Artful Framing

Di assisting Chris Davis in framing a photo of Violinist Walter Mony, previous conductor of the Youth Orchestra in Johannesburg, South Africa. Chris took the photo.

Mould Making Equipment Now Available

Doug has made a generous donation of equipment used for making silicon moulds
It is currently stored in the picture framing area.
Please consult Di or Doug on the use of the equipment.

The photo below shows one of Doug's carvings, replicated using a silicon mould.

Bright Idea for Shed BBQs

Our intrepid Barbeque name badge dispenser Lin, having welcomed members and guests to our seasonal barbecues, found giving out name badges a most cumbersome procedure.

So, Lin, with help from Mike and Di, came up with a purpose made tray. Well done team
