First Aid Courses to be Held at the Shed

From a loyal group of Shedders, there is a qualified first aider on duty every day the Shed is open. They are trained and ready to provide First Aid, and are also watching out for Shedder safety.

Knowledge of First Aid is valuable for everyone, as the person you save may be a loved one.

To that end, we have organised two First Aid Courses that will be held at The Shed.

They are organised for the same day Friday, 29th November

Full First Aid certificate 09:30am - 03:30pm Cost $110

To Enrol - click here.

Basic CPR certificate 09:30am - 11:30am Cost $55

More details on the courses can be found here.

We encourage you to attend.

Plan for Office Approved by Council

We have received notification from Kur-ring-gai Council that our application for the new Shed Office extension has been approved.

The next step is review of quotes for the construction phase.

What We Do

Taras and his harp

The lunchroom crowd was entertained by Taras playing the harp he made, in part, in the Shed.

The beautiful sound was in contrast to the usual din and was greatly appreciated.

His next step is to add the electronics. That will enable the harp to be played outdoors and at venues.

Taras explained that the electronics will also allow the sound to be converted to any other synthesised instrument. Though the thought of trumpet sound coming from a harp challenges the imagination.

Mark R finished his lazy Suzan.

He purchased a ball bearing race and made the lazy Suzan underneath from laminated wood offcuts.

The whole platter rotates and the little crockery bowl that sits in the hole is easily removed, as is the ball race, for quick washing-up.

In these more enlightened times, this is now called a "languid non gender specific name device".

Three Amigos

The wood turning area has been extra busy over the last few months, as Shedders make use of the new layout.

This allows multiple people to safely use the lathes at once.

Benches for Pymble Primary School

Eight of these hefty benches were designed and built at The Shed and delivered to a very satisfied customer.
